February is American Heart Month!

Our Lake Balboa NC Public Safety Committee is focusing on the importance of CPR. With over 350,000 cardiac arrests occurring outside the hospital in the U.S. each year – including more than 23,000 children who experience out of hospital cardiac arrest (9,200 children experience cardiac arrest related to sports activity) – our goal is to help save more lives and empower more people to respond when it matters most.
